

AIRBALTIC LAUNCHES FLIGHTS FROM RIGA TO SOCHI

News / Airlines, Airports / Routes

The Latvian airline airBaltic yesterday, on May 14, 2018, launched a new route from Riga International Airport to Sochi International Airport. The new route offers new travel options for travellers from the Baltics and Russia with convenient connections via Riga. In addition, this summer Sochi will be one of the host cities for 2018 FIFA World Cup and the new connection via Riga will offer convenient flight options to all who are planning to attend the championship.

Wolfgang Reuss, SVP of Network Management of airBaltic: "We are delighted to launch operations between Riga and Sochi for this summer season. The new route will offer great summer gateway for travellers from the Baltics to the Black sea coast city Sochi, as well as new convenient connections for travellers from Russia with European and Scandinavian airports."
