

AIRWAYS AVIATION ESMA PARTNERS WITH CREWLINK

News / Airlines, Maintenance / Trainings

Airways Aviation ESMA, one of the leading aviation academies in Europe has partnered with Crewlink, the official recruitment partner for Ryanair. With this partnership all Airways Aviation ESMA cabin crew graduate students will have a job interview and the possibility of being recruited to join Ryanair team.

Crewlink will also use Airways Aviation ESMA training facilities in Montpellier to provide training to their cabin crew members. We would like to invite all our former students, and everyone interested in taking their cabin crew training, to join us on the 8th August at 09h30am at Airways Aviation ESMA facilities in Montpellier, France for this recruitment day.

As we have limited seats enrolment for the day is mandatory, you can do it on the QR code of the image where you can also upload your personal necessary documents for the application.

Hope to see you that day!
