

AIRBALTIC TO LAUNCH RIGA – VERONA

News / Airports / Routes

Riga. The Latvian airline airBaltic will launch a new route between Riga and Verona on December 26, 2015 for winter holidaymakers.

Christophe Viatte, Chief Commercial Officer of airBaltic: "Our customer was our focus, when Tez Tour and airBaltic teamed up for this winter season. We are delighted to offer Verona, Italy, and Salzburg, Austria, in cooperation with Tez Tour for our winter travellers."

Konstantins Palgovs, General Manager of Tez Tour in the Baltics: "It will be the 18th & 19th seasonal destinations that we open in co-operation with airBaltic. The new route will offer excellent opportunities to visit historic Verona in Northern Italy, enjoying a winter holiday in the Alps. In fact, the new Verona – Riga is yet another historic route that we jointly offer the travel industry.”

airBaltic & Tez Tour will fly from Riga to Verona once a week. Passengers will board a Boeing 737 aircraft for a flight that will last 2 hours and 30 minutes. One-way ticket prices will start at EUR 89, including airport fees and transaction costs. A full schedule of airBaltic flights can be found on the company's homepage at www.airbaltic.com airBaltic serves over 60 destinations from its home base in Riga, Latvia. From every one of these locations, airBaltic offers convenient connections via Riga to its network spanning Europe, Scandinavia, Russia, CIS and the Middle East. In addition, airBaltic also offers new direct flights from Tallinn and Vilnius.
