

THE ULM FLIPPED DURING LANDING, PASSENGERS UNHARMED

News / Airports / Routes

Engine failure forced the pilot of an ULM which had just taken off from Colmar - Houssen aerodrome attempting a perilous landing saturday morning shortly before 11 am.

Image not found or type unknown

The aircraft landed on a plowed field near Saint Hippolyte and flipped. The two passengers were unharmed.

SOURCE: DNA

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://virginia.50skyshades.com/news/airports-routes/the-ulm-flipped-during-landing-passengers-unharmmed>