

AIRSPRINT CELEBRATED ACCEPTANCE OF ITS 36TH AIRCRAFT & 500TH FRACTIONAL OWNER

News / Business aviation

AirSprint accepted its 15th Embraer aircraft. This addition elevates company' commitment to delivering first-class private aviation experiences. With this latest delivery, AirSprint now operates a fleet of 36 aircraft, serving an exclusive community of over 500 fractional owners in Canada. Embraer Praetor 500 is a remarkable transcontinental aircraft that can quickly and efficiently span North America—a perfect complement to the AirSprint fleet. The mid-size jet's state-of-the-art features, including a spacious cabin, cutting-edge avionics, and best-in-class cabin altitude, align seamlessly with AirSprint's commitment to delivering an exceptional travel experience.

James Elian, President & CEO of AirSprint, commented: "AirSprint is thrilled to welcome this newest Embraer Praetor 500 into our growing fleet. Today, we have 36 aircraft in our fleet, which marks a remarkable six additions in 2023. This achievement underscores our dedication to meeting the demand of our Ownership base, reaffirming AirSprint's leadership position in Canadian private aviation. We look forward to the continued growth and further innovation that awaits us in 2024."

Jared Williams, AirSprint's Vice President of Operations & COO, said: "We are very grateful for the loyalty of our Fractional Owners who have chosen AirSprint for their private aviation needs. Our focus remains on providing an unmatched level of service, and this milestone only strengthens our resolve to continue elevating what Canadians can expect."

AirSprint remains dedicated to innovation, safety, sustainability, and service excellence, and the acceptance of its 36th aircraft reinforces the company's position as a trailblazer in Canada's private aviation industry. Furthermore, AirSprint's success in surpassing the 500-Fractional-Owner milestone reflects the trust and confidence that its Fractional Owners place in this dedication.
