

UAS LAUNCHES AIR CONCIERGE PROGRAM FOR OPTIMAL CHOICE, TRANSPARENCY AND EFFICIENCY

News / Business aviation

UAS International Trip Support launched the UAS Charter Air Concierge Program – an exclusive offering designed for individuals that wish to enjoy enhanced cost-efficiency, flexibility, and transparency when they fly. Designed to adapt to customers' unique travel needs, the UAS Charter Air Concierge Program empowers members to choose a package that best aligns with their flight frequency and enjoy a premium, personalized experience. They can opt for the All-Inclusive Hourly Package or Hourly Rate Plus Actual Flight Costs options, ensuring that their chosen hours meet this specific travel and budget requirements.

UAS Charter Director, Philip du Preez commented: "Whether it's business or leisure flying, occasional flights over a few months or a long-term tailored solution, we offer flexible membership packages that provide priority access, cost efficiency, and seamless travel experiences."

UAS Founder and Executive President, Mohammed Husary stated: "UAS Charter offers a new level of service in private flight, encompassing unrivalled convenience and luxury and enabling our customers to enjoy flying with total peace of mind.”

UAS Charter Air Concierge Program's members enjoy priority access to world-class aircraft, and 24/7 personalized support from a dedicated key account manager standing by to arrange every detail of their journey. Other benefits include:

Only pay for the hours you fly

- Package only deduct the actual time customers spend flying.
- UAS calculate flight time from take-off to landing. Unlike many programs, UAS won't deduct time for taxiing. Members only pay for what matters – the time they fly. This means never losing value on unused hours, offering ultimate fairness and transparency.

No last-minute booking premiums

- Whether it's a planned trip or a spontaneous getaway, there are no extra fees for last-minute bookings or requests.

Family and friends access

- Members have the unique privilege of nominating colleagues, family or friends to enjoy access to ad-hoc charter opportunities and empty-leg flights or have access to the member hours. This exclusive benefit allows their loved ones, colleagues or friends to experience the same premium service and exceptional travel solutions from UAS Charter.
