

HELIPASS: #1 ONLINE BOOKING PLATFORM DESIGNS TO REACH THE 6 MILLION BOOKINGS.

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

During Heli Expo, Las Vegas 2018, the #1 online booking platform extends its footprint into the US market.

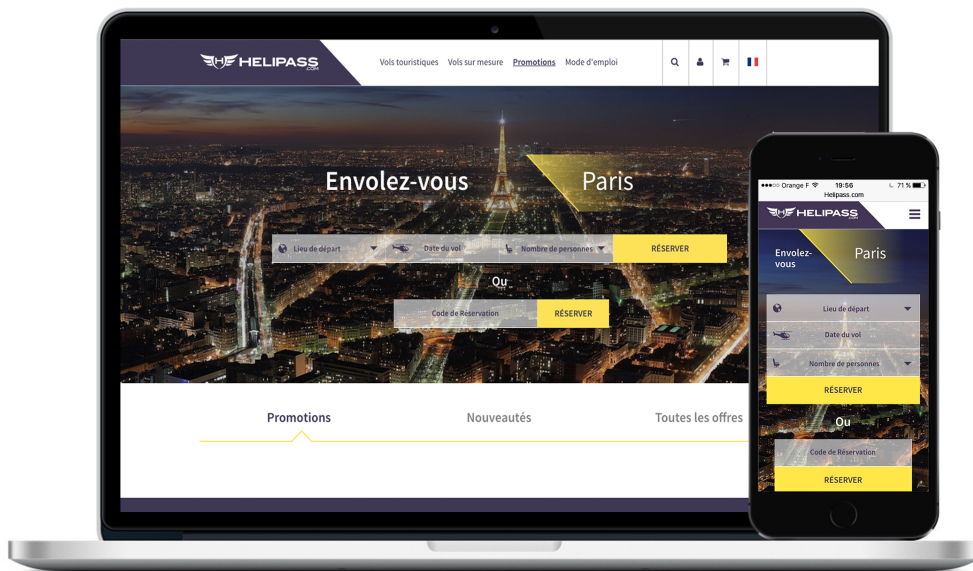

Helipass, the digitally powered online helicopter booking with a span on over 235 destinations for tourism and transfers. Helipass bridges the needs of customers and helicopter operators by maximizing helicopter capacity. With an amazing achievement as of today for 20 000 bookings, the Helipass team is proud to be the first marketplace for worldwide helicopter tours and transfers.

The helicopter sightseeing yearly market represents 6 million passengers with a growth of 10% per year. Helipass disrupts the model by offering worldwide capacity and digital access to consumers as well as partners.

The Helipass software platform boosts sales, save time and maximize profit with a mix of direct sales and original distributors network. Strong partnerships have been recently announced such as Airbnb, Booking.com and Uber.

“We are always looking for new partnerships to promote helicopter in the world. We have launched Ubercopter in France and open the door of new experiences with a great success. “A huge market is ahead of us with 6 million helicopter tourists in the world each year and, soon, the rise of autonomous helicopter market (Air Urban Mobility) will boom.” says Frederic Aguetant, Helipass.

Helipass, the leading Helicopter booking platform for both leisure and business transfers has offices in Los Angeles and Paris to serve global markets in the aeronautical tourism. A tailor-made experience is offered to each partner in order to meet your standards. Helipass offers flights throughout 235 locations, please visit our website to book your next flight in less than 3 steps. Our know-how in the aeronautics' field and E-commerce allow us to offer a dedicated platform that provides one in a lifetime experience.
