

ALSIM TO STRENGTHEN ITS PRESENCE IN TURKEY

News / Maintenance / Trainings

ALSIM is strengthening its presence in Turkey. Bluewings Aviation, a DGCA approved General Aviation Company located in Çorlu, Turkey, has recently bought an ALSIM AL250 simulator. The AL250 simulator addresses initial phase training needs (PPL, CPL, IR/ME) and is SEP/MEP re-configurable simulator certified as an EASA FNPT II. In addition, it offers both classic and glass cockpit instrumentation for each flight model at the simple flick of a switch. This device has been extremely well received since its creation and more than 65 of these have already been installed and are in successful operation worldwide.

“We would like to proceed on new projects about professional aviation with support of the ALSIM experience and EASA standards.” according to Sezai Demirseren, Owner of Bluewings Aviation LLC.

Audrey Jeffroy, ALSIM Sales Director is proud to welcome Bluewings Aviation. “It was our honor to collaborate with Kenan Karaman and Sezai Demirseren, we are very pleased to begin a successful cooperation between our two companies.”

Bluewings Aviation LLC was founded by flight instructors Kenan Karaman and Sezai Demirseren in 2017, providing approved mobile maintenance services for piston aircraft. Bluewings Aviation LLC is DGCA approved company in Turkey and is specialize in flight training, ferry flight operation around Europe and Middle East and aircraft trading consulting.
