

FST SELLS HOP! ATR42/72 FULL FLIGHT SIMULATOR TO SOUTH AMERICA

News / Maintenance / Trainings

Flight Simulator Trader acquired a Flight Safety ATR42/72-500 Full Flight Simulator from HOP!-Training, France to develop of its training portfolio for South American and overseas operators of ATR aircraft.

Flight Simulator Trader was acting as general contractor on behalf of HOP!-Training as former operator of the device and the new owner. FST sourced the Full Flight Simulator, evaluated, upgraded and relocated the device to provide a piece of mind solution for HOP!-Training.

“I am very grateful for the 12 months of cooperation that led to the sale of this device. I appreciate the common effort and exchange I had especially with Philippe Goetz and Marc Borina of HOP!-Training and being able to make this project happen to the benefit of all parties involved!”, says Mr Alexander Schaffler, Managing Director of Flight Simulator Trader.

“I really appreciated the commitment of Alexander Schaffler of FST to source and select potential customers and to finalize an agreement for the sale of our ATR Simulator device to a new Training center”, says Mr Philippe Goetz, CEO of HOP!-Training.

04 NOVEMBER 2019

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://virginia.50skyshades.com/news/maintenance-trainings/fst-sells-hop-atr4272-full-flight-simulator-to-south-america>